EDUCATION AND TRAINING IN MAY 2012:

Do not miss any of the exciting educational events of the Division of Professional Development

1) ACTIC: Looking to lead the pack? Or at least your department? Interested in enhancing and/or advancing your skills? Delegates from the Clinical Training Committee have set up the following advanced training courses in intensive care medicine:

- ICU management (Course Director: Pascale Gruber).
Preliminary date: May 09-10, 2012. Bern, Switzerland.
- Haemodynamic management (Course Director: Maurizio Cecconi).
Preliminary date: May 11-12 2012; Bern, Switzerland.

2) CoBaSymposium & Workshop 2012: Are you a teacher/trainer or a trainee? Are you involved in teaching of and training in intensive care medicine? Then you might be interested in:

- Learning more about the structures, models, and resources currently used for teaching and training in intensive care medicine throughout Europe
- Discussing strengths and weaknesses of currently used tools and techniques to assess competence during postgraduate medical training (e.g. DOPS, Mini-CEX, multi-source feedback, etc.)
- Helping us set up an attractive, up-to-date tool to monitor and document progress during postgraduate medical training (web-based portfolio & logbook)

If you would like to be involved in the process, this is your opportunity!

We invite you to attend CoBaSymposium 2012! Join experts in the field of medical teaching and training and delegates from national training organisations of postgraduate training programmes in intensive care medicine.

CoBaSymposium & Workshop, May 11-12 2012 at Bern University Hospital (Inselspital), Switzerland
